A Quicker Mania.

Mr. William Edward Cartwright, solicitor, formerly assistant town clerk of Newcastle-under-Lyme, under examination in bankruptcy at "Hamley," was questioned as to how he disposed of the money he appropriated. He said most of it had gone in railway traveling. He traveled somewhere nearly every day without any earthly object, sometimes going to and returning from London in the same day. He had consulted a physician in London about his "failing," and the physician gave him a prescription for it. —South Wales Daily News.
